

Kosher Food at Temple Emunah

This document lists what food may be brought into the kitchen and/or served at Temple Emunah.

1. Foods that do not need certification

UNCUT fruits and vegetables and whole raw eggs do not need certification. For a longer list of products that do not require certification, see the CRC List.

2. Kosher Symbols

Food with an accepted hekhsher (kosher symbol) may be brought into the building.

Temple Emunah DOES accept the following Hekhshers:

Temple Emunah DOES NOT accept the following Hekhshers:

*Just the letter K is NOT an accepted hechsher (unless it appears on an Activia yogurt or another product approved by the rabbis. )

3. Fruits and Vegetable Platters

- All fruit and vegetable platters that are cut or prepared in some way must have an accepted kosher symbol. You can bring whole fruit or fruit and cut it up in our kitchen.
- Kosher fruit platters may be ordered at Wilson Farms and MUST have a kosher sticker.

4. Stop and Shop Kosher Meat Slicer

The Stop and Shop in Lexington Center has a kosher meat slicer. When purchasing the meat, request that they use the meat slicer. When the employee packs up the meat, they will put a kosher sticker on it. Any packages of meat from the slicer that are brought into the building must have that sticker on them.
